

Termination of Agreements by DTC Management Services Sp. z o.o

Current Report No. 56/2006 of December 21st 2006

The Management Board of Impel SA reports that on December 21st 2006 DTC Management Services Sp. z o.o. of Warsaw, acting on its own behalf and on behalf of DTC Land Operations SA, DTC Real Estate SA, Prime Warsaw Properties Sp. z o.o. and Prime Properties Sp. z o.o., gave notice to terminate agreements concluded with GP Bis Sp. z o.o.

The agreements concerned facility management services.

The above-mentioned agreements were terminated on December 20th 2006, effective as of the end of January 2007.

The notice of termination was prompted by the selection of another facility management service provider (resulting from a completed tender procedure) for the companies of the DTC Management Services Group.

The expected effect of the termination of the above-mentioned agreements on the financial result of Impel SA, GP Bis and the Impel Group's consolidated result, is immaterial. The value of the terminated agreements will not affect the forecasts of consolidated financial results published in Current Report No. 14/2006 of March 1st 2006.

Taking into account the total monthly revenue under the agreements, as at the date of their termination, they are classified as significant agreements.
