

Termination of Agreements by Telekomunikacja Polska S.A. in Connection with a Tender for the Provision of Services

Current Report No. 15/2006 of March 3rd 2006

The Management Board of Impel S.A. hereby reports that yesterday it became aware of the termination by Telekomunikacja Polska S.A. (TP) of agreements concluded with member companies of the Impel Group. Under the agreements, Impel provided cleaning, security, technical and maintenance services to some of TP branches.

Particular agreements were terminated with the effect as of March 31st and May 31st 2006. According to the information provided by TP, the termination of the agreements is connected with the organisation of a tender for countrywide provision of services for TP. Impel intends to submit to TP its proposal to continue the cooperation in the scope of the abovementioned agreements.

The expected effect of the termination on the financial performance of Impel S.A. and on the consolidated results of the Group is immaterial.

Taking into account the total monthly revenue under the agreements, as at the date of their termination they classified as significant agreements.
